1. What information do we collect?

Personal data that you disclose to us

Summary : we collect personal data that you provide to us.

We collect personal data that you voluntarily provide to us when you register on the Website and in the process of using it in any way, when you participate in activities on the Website or otherwise when you contact us.

The type and amount of personal data we collect depends on the context of your interaction with the Website, taking into account the functionality involved in providing the specified services.

The personal information we collect may include the following:

Data provided by you for communication.

We collect the following personal data: names; e-mail addresses; and other necessary information for the purpose of establishing feedback with you.

Data for entering social networks.

We may provide you with the opportunity to register with us using your existing social media account, Google account. If you choose to register, we will collect the information described in the section entitled "How we process your social logins" below.

Data entered by you on our website.

We collect and store information about your assets and transactions related to these assets. Such data is stored separately from your login data through social networks and linked through an anonymization mechanism to increase the security of your data.

Additionally, we may process the data you enter in the chatbot for the operation of the AI assistant (for example, information about assets or requests for advice). Only the information necessary to provide a response is transmitted to the AI model.

Information that is collected automatically

Summary: Some information — such as your Internet Protocol (IP) address and/or browser and device characteristics — is collected automatically when you visit our website.

We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use the Website without creating an account. This information does not reveal your identity (such as your name or contact information), but may include information about the device and its use, such as: Your IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language settings, URLs link, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our website and other technical information. This information is primarily necessary for the security and operation of our website, as well as for internal analytics and reporting.

Like many other companies, we also collect information using cookies and similar technologies. You can find out more about this in our Cookie Notice.

The information we collect includes:

- Log Data and Usage. Log and Usage Data is service, diagnostic, usage and performance information that our servers automatically collect when you access or use our website and that we record in log files. Depending on how you interact with us, this log data may include your IP address, device information, browser type and settings, and information about your activity on the Website (for example, date/time stamps associated with your usage, pages and files viewed, searches and other activities you perform, such as which features you use), information about device events (such as system activity, error reports and hardware settings).

- Device data. We collect device data, such as information about your computer, phone, tablet or other device that you use to access the Website. Depending on the device used, this device data may include information such as your IP address (or proxy server), device and application identification numbers, location, browser type, Internet service provider and/or mobile operator hardware model communication, operating system and information system configuration.

- Location data. We collect location data, such as information about the location of your device, which may or may not be accurate. How much information we collect depends on the type and settings of the device you use to access the Website. For example, we may use GPS and other technologies to collect geolocation data that tells us your current location (based on your IP address). You may opt out of allowing us to collect this information by refusing to access the information or by turning off location settings on your device. However, please note that if you choose to opt out, you may not be able to use certain aspects of the Services.2. Як ми використовуємо Вашу інформацію?
